Kendal is an attractive market town situated on the edge of the Lake District and known as the gateway to the Lakes being situated approximately 20 miles north of Lancaster, 33 miles from Barrow in Furness, 60 miles from Carlisle and 8 miles from access to the M6 motorway at Junction 36. The town has a resident population of approximately 25,000 but draws on a wider catchment population from a number of villages and affluent rural hinterland. The town is the administrative centre for South Lakeland District Council and has a broad employment base which has helped to maintain unemployment levels well below the national average.
